How to awaken the fire in your prince

CHOOSE TO BE PICKED UP AT HOME

Start expectations off on the right foot. His masculine instincts will come out and stay out. "I prefer to be picked up."

LET HIM COME TO THE DOOR

Stay in the house until he comes to get you. If he texts or calls, let him know "I'm ready!"

WAIT FOR HIM TO OPEN THE DOOR

This begins with the car door, and extends to all doors throughout the evening/date. Simply wait at the door until he opens it. If he doesn't, you don't go through.

SIGNAL WHEN READY TO LEAVE

Put your purse on the table when you're ready to leave dinner. You don't have to end the date, but when you need a change of scenery, you have to let him know gracefully.

LET HIM PAY THE BILL

You may offer "can I help?" at some point at your own discretion, but never insist on paying! Always allow a gentleman to treat you like a lady.

PRACTICE THESE HABITS ALWAYS

Even ~ or maybe especially ~ when you are with someone you don't see yourself with long term, make sure to maintain your princess poise.

LET HIM LEAD THE CONVERSATION

Give him space to prove himself and earn your trust. Don't ask a lot of questions. Never interrupt.

LET HIM HELP YOU

When exiting the car or walking up stairs, let him help you. If he doesn't offer an arm or hand, put your hand out to indicate your desire for his.

KEEP TABS ON YOUR INNER STATE

Be mindful of your boundaries, emotions, comfort and safety. Make statements of "I feel" NOT "I think." But don't offer solutions.

ONLY LET HIM KISS YOU...IF YOU WANT TO

Never allow anyone to make you feel guilty about declining intimacy of any form. Investment, commitment, and trust are needed first.
